

Application for Institutional Membership

OMA members receive:

- E-Dispatch, the OMA's monthly e-mail notice of museum news and events.
- Discounts on registration fees to OMA meetings and workshops.
- Each member is entitled to one vote at OMA business meetings.

Institutional memberships are for museums and, in addition to the basic benefits, receive a free listing on OMA website and inclusion in OMA directories. Institutional members may send up to five staff members (paid staff, volunteers, or board members, who need not be individual members of OMA) to OMA meetings and workshops at the discounted rate.

OMA Institutional members should qualify as a museum by the definition of the International Council of Museums:

"A museum is a non-profit, permanent institution in the service of society and its development, open to the public, which acquires, conserves, researches, communicates and exhibits the tangible and intangible heritage of humanity and its environment for the purposes of education, study and enjoyment."

New members: If your institution is not yet listed on the OMA website, please fill out your form in entirety, include a description of your institution (300 words or less) and return it with your membership dues. Upon receipt of your form and dues, we will post your listing on the OMA website. We will also assist you in setting up a profile on the OMA website that can be used to edit your member listing.

Existing/renewing members: Please review your current listing on the OMA website, www.oregonmuseums.org. Use this form to indicate any changes to your listing and submit with your membership dues. Upon receipt of your form and dues, we will update your listing on the OMA website. We will also assist you in setting up a profile on the OMA website that can be used to edit your member listing.

All OMA memberships are on a calendar year basis and expire on December 31st.
